OLIVER'S TARANGA VINEYARDS

RUTHLESS RUTH LIQUEUR MUSCAT McLAREN VALE

THE STORY OF 'R.W. OLIVER & SONS

Ruth Oliver was married to second generation Archibald Oliver, who inherited a portion of the property from his father William Oliver. Unfortunately, family tales tell a story of a man who was quite partial to a drink, and Archibald died in 1910, leaving Ruth to run the substantial family farm. Ruth took this in her stride, and was known to be a hard task master. Heck we don't even have one photo of her smiling!

WINEMAKER

Corrina Wright, 6th Generation family member

GRAPE VARIETY

100% White Frontignac (Muscat)

REGION

100% McLaren Vale

COLOUR

Deep mocha caramel

AROMA

Rich & pungent, the aroma of muscat and sultana cake leaps from the glass. Dried apricots, honeysuckle, nutty notes and a hint of candied citrus.

PALATE

Continuing onto the palate a viscous explosion of flavour. Lovely sweet spirit carries the rich flavours of glace fruits and the nutty creamy oak influence. A flavour that lingers and lingers

ALCOHOL

19%

PRODUCTION

1500 bottles

WHAT HARLEE HAVE TO SAY...

"Damn tasty I say to you sir! To be sipped in smoking jackets whilst discussing the finer points of badmington.